REED AND BOOHER

THE ST. JOSEPH NEWS-PRESS SAYS THEY SHOULD BE RE-ELECT

BOTH WITH PRESIDENT

Support of Mr. Wilson Cannot Be Consistent Without Support of Those Whom Are in Accord With Him.

The St. Joseph News-Press in yesterday's issue came out editorially for the re-election of Senator James A. Reed and Congressman Charles F. Booher. The following is the editorial in part:

This is a time in the political affairs of this country when thoughtful men are considering, above all things, the maintenance of conditions that are satisfactory; when men are forsaking party lines and taking their stand for the approval of a course that has kept the nation out of difficulties; when they are willing to trust the future to a man who has a grip upon the existing situation and in whom they have confidence. It follows that support of Mr. Wilson cannot be consistent without support of those who are in accord with him, who have helped him in his work and who would, of course, be with him in the future. Without support from congress Mr. Wilson would be helpless. The country needs Mr. Wilson for the next four years, and it needs a congress that will stand by him.

Missouri elects a senator this year, and the candidates for this place are James A. Reed and Walter S. Dickey. The course of Senator Reed in the momentous problems that have confronted the administration in its dealings with the belligerent nations of Europe has been such as to commend him for re-election. Senator Reed has disclosed a high sense of patriotic duty. He was with the president in every crisis that arose with Germany. He stanchly fought for preparedness and opposed the attempts of the pro-Germans to plunge this country into an unneutral attitude. He voted against the Gore-McLemore resolution which instructed the president to warn Americans against sailing in the ships of belligerent nations, and he has vigorously preached loyalty and Americanism to the hyphens upon every occasion. Also he has been with the president in all of the constructive legislation that has been enacted during the past four years.

Senator Reed's opponent is a high-grade business man, against whom nothing is to be urged, personally, but whose success at this time would not, in the existing conditions, serve the country to such good purpose as would the re-election of Senator Reed. To be consistent, therefore, the man who who votes for Wilson should also vote for Reed.

The same argument applies to the election of a congressman from the Fourth district. Mr. Booher has been a staunch supporter of the Wilson policies when some other Missouri congressmen were not. He has been with the president on every issue, has given his vote to the new and valuable laws that have been made; has been the advocate of preparedness; has stood against the embargo upon arms, and has upheld American neutrality and loyalty. He, too, opposed the Gore-McLemore resolution and thus helped to save the nation from a most humiliating act. He should be returned to serve in a congress that has recognized the critical position of the president. No congress within memory has been so responsive to a president. It would be folly to embarrass Mr. Wilson with a national assembly that would be antagonistic to him when he was right.

ELKS 'STUNT' A SUCCESS

Open House Last Night Brought Out a Large Number of Members and Guests.

The annual "open house" of the Elks club was held last night at their club rooms and was largely attended. This is the first of a series of entertainments to be put on by the Elks this coming winter.

The entertainment last night was the best one of all the Elks' "stunts." Card playing, pool and billiards occupied the time of the members and their guests until the big show in the lodge room. Six colored gentlemen furnished the fun for the crowd. Negro songs and dancing, an old-fashioned pie eating contest and a "battle royal" made up the program, and was immensely enjoyed. The judges in these contests were D. J. Snyder of St. Joseph, Harvey Haines, Dr. C. A. Bone, Ed Costello and Ed Keck.

In the dining hall lunch was served, cafeteria style. Exalted Ruler C. C. Hellmers, in a short talk, outlined the social activities of the Elks club for the winter. Fifteen applications for membership were obtained by the members at the close of the lunch.

Much credit is due the committee, Albert Kuchs, Kyle Phares and Ben Chandler, for the success of the entertainment last night.

Senator Jones late yesterday withdrew his complaint against eight other citizens of Villisca, sued jointly with Wilkerson.

"The withdrawal of the case against the eight other defendants is legal strategy," said Senator Jones. "Detective Wilkerson is the one against whom our charges are directed and we wish his case to come to trial first."

In his information Senator Jones charges conspiracy and slander against the detective.

LIFE AT HARVARD

PROF. E. L. HARRINGTON DISCUSSES STUDENT CUSTOMS.

FRESHIES 'HOODWINKED'

First Year Men Give Large Sums to Finance the Seniors' Spring Hike —Other Reminiscences.

College life at Harvard was discussed at the Normal assembly yesterday morning, by Prof. E. L. Harrington, of the Physics department.

Prof. Harrington said:

"The first impression, or depression, one gets of Harvard is that everyone is required to take entrance examinations when entering the undergraduate school." If Prof. Harrington got the "swelled head" at Harvard it was all taken out of him when he went to Harvard. The degrees are conferred in Latin. When his degree was conferred he understood none of the "lingo." But when the usher nodded to him he knew it was over and sat down. It was quite humiliating. After the degrees were conferred, a Mr. Pierce of Dakota and Mr. Harrington were walking down the street calling each other, "Dr." They were in the regalia of their degrees and felt very proud indeed. On the street they passed a mother and her small daughter. The little girl after taking a preliminary survey of them, said: "Mamma, I never saw such big tin soldiers before."

At Harvard the upper classmen take pride in the old dormitories. Some point to the fact that they are studying at the same table at which their great-grandfather studied. Harvard is not a co-educational institution in the undergraduate department; But the lack is fulfilled. Four blocks away is a woman's college.

The undergraduate classes have been accused of snobbishness. The graduate schools however, bear no taint of this. The student is made welcome everywhere.

Beer is served at the class banquets. But sentiment is growing against it, and it is probable that the custom will soon be discontinued.

The Seniors always need a great deal of money for their spring hike and the others bear the burden. The "Freshies" are hoodwinked into giving large sums under the impression that they are real sports. The Seniors dress in caps and gowns and appear on the campus as poor and starving beggars and beg from the Freshies. When the Freshie gives them some money they cheer him.

While revelry is carried on in one place, prayer meetings and other organizations hold session. The appointments to positions on the annual and the different publications are made only on the basis of merit. The one who gets the most subscriptions or most advertising and so on, gets the position.

Miss Hewitt Returns.

Miss Lola Hewitt, who has been visiting at Hopkins, has returned to Quitman, and will make her home with Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Price.

A MISSOURI MARK HANNA.

The Republican campaign text book saves us the trouble of characterizing Walter S. Dickey, the Republican candidate for Senator Reed's seat in the United States senate. It classifies him with the late Mark Hanna of slush fund fame in the following apt and pithy paragraph:

"Those who knew Senator Mark Hanna in the days of his dominance believe that Mr. Dickey has many of that great political chieftain's masterful characteristics as a political organizer, and will likewise demonstrate in the Senate his splendid capacity for legislative leadership."

The country suffered so much from Senator Hanna's "masterful characteristics as a political organizer", which resulted in the degradation of national politics to a game of frying the fat and dividing the spoils, that we hardly think the people of Missouri want to commission another of his like—a Missouri Mark Hanna. The system by which the masters of finance and industry corrupted the electorate and bought elections to be richly repaid afterwards by the loot of special privilege was largely a creation of Senator Hanna. The country has just rid itself of the system and its lobby, its loot and its campaign slush funds. We don't want it revived.

The dollar mark was on everything political that Senator Hanna did. Like the Senator, Mr. Dickey has the dollars and is willing to spend them in politics. In the sketch of him printed in today's Sunday Post-Dispatch we find that he is not averse to making money by forming combinations to obtain monopolitic and oppressive franchises in his home city. He has profited by the sale of franchise values which belonged to his city.

Mr. Dickey has been continuously identified with two organizations, one local and the other national, which are bitterly antagonistic to organized labor. He was a member of the Manufacturers' Association which maintained a rotten lobby in Wahsington.

Nothing is his record suggests the advisability of substituting him for Senator Reed, who has a fine clean record of usefulness in the Senate. Senator Reed has proved in the Senate his capacity, industry and devotion to public service. Much of the criticism he received in his early labors his complete record shows to have been undeserved and most of it was earned by his independence—a most desirable quality in public men, particularly in members of Congress. His contributions to the Wilson administration's record of achievements have been notable and valuable.

Senator Reed is just entering upon his period of greatest usefulness. He has the experience of one term. It is a mistake to reject a faithful and capable Senator. It would be a monstrous blunder to exchange him for a successor who would attempt to undo the best things that have been done for the people, and who in the event of Mr. Wilson's election would try to block his progressive program.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

A MISSOURI-KANSAS GAME

State Normal Team Will Play Highland College Team of Kansas Here Friday Afternoon.

A Missouri-Kansas football game will be played in Maryville Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the State Normal athletic field between the State Normal team and the Highland College of Highland, Kans. As the visiting team will leave the city on the afternoon train that day, the game will be called early and President Richardson will dismiss the afternoon classes in time for the battle between the two teams.

The football team came through the Maryville-Missouri-Wesleyan game week without much more than a scratch, and should be in good shape for the Highland college game which will be on the Normal grounds Friday of this week. Although the practice this week has been delayed considerably by the rainy weather, yet the drilling in the Wesleyan game last week has taught the boys all they will be able to absorb this week.

The meeting of the Spanish club which was scheduled for Tuesday night at the home of Miss Myrtle Wells, on West First street, was postponed until Thursday night.

The yell leaders are urging all the students to write some new yells from which will be chosen a yell known as "The Normal Yell."

YOU'LL find a cheery howdy-do on tap no matter how much of a stranger you are to the neck of the woods you drop into. For, Prince Albert is right there—at the first place you pass that sells tobacco! The toppy red bag sells for a nickel and the tidy red tin for a dime; then there's the handsome pound and half-pound tin humidors and the pound crystal-glass humidor with sponge-moistener top that keeps the tobacco in such bang-up trim all-the-time!

in goodness and in pipe satisfaction is all we or its enthusiastic friends ever claimed for it!

It answers every smoke desire you or any other man ever had! It is so cool and fragrant and appealing to your smokeappetite that you will get chummy with it in a mighty short time!

Will you invest 5c or 10c to prove out our say-so on the national joy smoke?

U. S. IS PROSPEROUS

MARVELOUS ADVANCE MADE IN WILSON ADMINISTRATION.

Authentic Figures Prove That Prosperity Today is Greatest in History of the World.

The advance of the country in progress and prosperity, under Wilson's administration, reaches such stupendous figures that the human mind is almost staggered in its efforts at their comprehension; and when we compare them with the $150,000,000,000 of debt incurred by the European countries in their great world war—which sum is mounting daily—it seems that no rational man could cast a vote against Woodrow Wilson.

Authentic statistics, recently compiled, show the following gains by the United States in the last four years, to-wit:

National wealth	$41,000,000,000
National bank resources	3,340,000,000
Total bank deposits	6,570,000,000
Foreign commerce	2,253,000,000
Exports	2,129,000,000
Imports	544,000,000
Trade balance in favor of United States	1,585,000,000
Agricultural exports	450,000,000
Manufactured exports	1,580,000,000
Gross R. R. revenue	760,000,000
Net R. R. revenue	318,000,000
Value of crops and live stock	1,158,000,000
Farm lands	4,060,000,000
Wages paid in manufacturies	1,560,000,000
Capital employed in manufacturing	6,500,000,000
Value of manufactured products	9,400,000,000

Meanwhile the debt of the United States to Europe has been decreased $3,340,000,000.

Less than 8 per cent of the total exports during this time have been war munitions.

These figures prove the country to be infinitely more prosperous than it has ever been under any previous administration, and more prosperous today than any other nation at any time in all the history of the world.

That the voters of this country would displace Woodrow Wilson in the face of these facts is positively unthinkable.

Worth Careful Thought

Do you read the label to know whether your baking powder is made from cream of tartar or, on the other hand, from alum or phosphate?

Royal Baking Powder is made from cream of tartar, derived from grapes, and adds to the food only wholesome qualities.

Other baking powders contain alum or phosphate, both of mineral origin, and used as substitutes for cream of tartar because of their cheapness.

Never sacrifice quality and healthfulness for low price.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

NEWS FROM ALL Northwest Missouri

Being the second oldest town in the Platte Purchase, Oregon celebrated its 75th anniversary last Saturday, October 21. The Holt County Sentinel, in commemorating this event, prints the dates on which other county seat plats were filed, as follows: Platte City, February 3, 1840; St. Joseph, about August 18, 1843; Savannah, February 23, 1842; and Rock Port, April 8, 1851. The original town plat of Maryville was not filed, but the first town lot sale was held in the summer of 1846. The town of Oregon was located by a commission composed of John A. Williams of Daviess county, Travis Finley of Clay, and Edwin Smith of Clinton. The town was at first called Finley, in honor of one of the commissioners, but shortly afterward, at Mr. Finley's own suggestion, it was changed to Oregon, from the Indian name, "Wan-re-gan," meaning beautiful, good, fair. The first daily mail service was established by stage line in 1857, a part of the St. Joseph and Council Bluffs line. Within recent years the people of Oregon have financed, built and successfully operated an interurban railway connecting with the main lines of the Burlington at Forest City, and for this and other public improvements have expended no less than $235,000. The Sentinel, in the current issue of which are two solid pages of valuable historical data, has been published continually for 51 years, and during 33 years of that time has been under the ownership and management of Dobyns & Curry, the present publishers.

Two gangs of men are working on the surveys and specifications for Clay county's rock road system. It is the plan to have all the preliminary work completed so that the construction work may begin as soon as the legality of the bond issue is upheld. The test case will come up for hearing next month. A writer in the Liberty Advance states that Clay county is the first county to vote a bond issue in excess of five per cent of its assessed property; and that, therefore, there exists in the state no precedent for the legalization of a road bond issue thus in excess of the constitutional limit.

Envy is the poison ivy on the rail fence of life.—Jewell Mayes.

The strangest family in America has been found at Wellington, where the News quotes a farmer boy as saying: "We've got 600 bushels of wheat and plenty of money in the bank, but we ain't goin' to buy an automobile."

A neighborhood adjoining Tarkio set apart three days last week as road days. With three graders, eight scrapers and several road drags, they put the roads in shape, while the women prepared dinner and served it in the driveway of a big barn.

Only a very few of the Northwest Missouri papers are accepting the paid advertisements of the liquor dealers. "In spite of these times of high print paper," says Howard Mills of the Mound City News-Jeffersonian, "we declined the business dispensed by the liquor interests to defeat state-wide prohibition."

I went to see my lady love; I thot her very fair, and gentle as a turtle dove and always on the square. I longed to squeeze her little hand and ask her for her heart, and tell her I could never stand to live from her apart. One balmy eve I took my heart to lay it at her feet, when suddenly my nerves did start at words I now repeat: "You mean old thing, you shut your face, I'll do just as I please; this whole blamed place is a disgrace; the dog is full of fleas. I hate the clothes I have to wear; I'm going to marry Jack, and have a home and decent fare, and fine clothes for my back." She scolded dad and all the kids, and slapped her little brother, and kicked the cat and chewed the rag and sassed her patient mother. Well, I was rooted to the spot, but not for very long; my lady love had seen me not; the rag she still chewed on. When toward the door she made a turn, I flew my little kite, and never more did I return; I simply said, "Good night."—Eagleville, in Bethany Republican.

Not less than five motor cars have been taken from private garages in Worth county during the past two weeks and driven by reckless riders without the consent or knowledge of the owners, and then returned them or abandoned them wherever the gasoline gave out. One such car was driven 100 miles during its "night out." Bloodhounds have been secured, says the Worth county Times, and determined efforts are being made to locate the guilty persons.

Linn county is credited with having a greater number of prairie chickens and other game birds than any other county in the nation—all because public sentiment upheld the game laws.

When a Santa Fe train struck a motor car on a crossing near Cameron the four occupants of the car all escaped with their lives, though the car was utterly demolished, one occupant was thrown 100 feet, and another carried on the pilot of the engine until the train was stopped.

A Grant City man is wearing his nose in a sling because he tried to stick it through the top of another man's automobile. Served him right, after the other fellow giving him a nice ride in the rear seat! He went up in the air just because the car bounded a little over a bumpy railroad crossing. The car couldn't have been going more than forty miles an hour, and the fellow should have kept his seat instead of nearly losing his head. Fortunately one of the good strong bows came in contact with the fellow's nose and prevented it from injuring the top of the brand new car. It required only four stitches to repair the nose.

A farmer who has lived near Maitland six years sold his farm the other day. In that period the cash value of the land increased from $100 an acre to $144.

Commenting on the fact that Maitland reported no births nor deaths in the state board of health during September, the Herald remarks: "We are holding our own, anyway."

While the Missouri Baptists were in session at Liberty last week an accident in the city electric light plant dimmed the lights in the church in which the association meetings were being held. The speaker before the meeting remarked that he would not have been surprised if the water pipes had burst at the coming of so many Baptists, but he had hardly looked for the lights to take note of their presence.

A freshman at William Jewell college at Liberty was thrown into the college pond last week when he refused to wear the green cap which the seniors—and precedent—decree that he must wear. No, little one, he was not drowned. He still waves, though not as freshly as before.

October 21 was sanitation day in Clay county, commemorating the fact that Clay county is the first in the state to establish uniformly sanitary conditions. The day was appropriately celebrated at Excelsior Springs. A parade of many novel and educational floats was one of the features, and the crowds were addressed by representatives of the public health department of the federal government, who have completed a thorough health survey of Clay county.

King City's annual corn, dairy and poultry show will be held December 6, 7 and 8.

A heating and ventilating system for rural school houses has been patented by W. H. VanVickle, one of the best paid rural teachers of Holt county. The new systems are being manufactured and sold by a Kansas City firm.

Driving off mud roads onto oiled roads is like emerging from a very dark night into the light of the sun at noonday, declares the Richmond Missourian editor, after driving over Richmond's oiled streets.

Another motor accident was caused last week by reflex action when John Kurtright of Stanberry was driving to his father's home near Darlington to partake of a birthday dinner. His hat blew off and one hand went after it with the sad result that the car swerved quickly, turned over and killed its driver.

The long sought remedy for asthma is thought to have been discovered by an Albany man. Oddly enough his name is Frost; not Jack Frost, the old enemy, but Fred Frost. For two years he has experimented successfully with his lucky formula and it has not failed in a single case to effect a cure. A company has been formed by several Albany men to manufacture and exploit the new cure.

The cat came back, says the Dearborn Democrat. This time it came back 25 miles after having been carried by motor car in a sack from the home of Tom Stanton at Dearborn, to that of Hickman Kyle at Bean Lake. The going time was 90 minutes, and the returning time was three weeks.
